Find an OCLC library

Find an OCLC participating library or its symbol. Enter whatever you know—part of a name, city, etc. To enter multiple search terms, type a comma (,) between multiple keywords or phrases within the same field. For example, "DC,MD,VA" in the State field will retrieve OCLC libraries within: District of Columbia, Maryland and/or Virginia.

Output
Results are limited to a display of 50 institutions.

Who can update?

Can I maintain Registry information for more than one institution?

Yes, as long as you are listed as an authorized user for each institution.

Policies Directory: set your rules for requests

The OCLC Policies Directory is a data source of over 10,000 WorldCat Resource Sharing libraries' lending policies. From WorldCat Resource Sharing you have one-click access to the Policies Directory, where you can review the lending and copying policies of other libraries participating in WorldCat Resource Sharing, plus their billing, system and contact information. You can use this information to choose your potential lenders, and publish your own policies in the Web-based Directory to reduce the number of unfillable requests you receive.

Search for potential lenders—by state, institution type or specific group. Find libraries that are OCLC suppliers and are willing to lend the specific format(s) of material that your users need. The Policies Directory is your source for detailed lending information that will help improve your chances of obtaining the materials that you request.

The Policies Directory allows you to identify requests that you cannot fill so that they will bypass your library. This automatic deflection can be set up based on service type (copy/loan), group membership, cost, material age and/or format type. By specifying requests that your library cannot fill, you reduce your processing time because library staff do not see requests they cannot fill. This enables them to focus on requests that can be filled.

The Policies Directory is now integrated with the WorldCat Registry—your Institution name, type and location information is all pulled from the Registry—as well as additional information about your library such as your catalog and home page. You only need to update this information in one place—the WorldCat Registry—and your changes will also be reflected in the Policies Directory.
